Writing and Reading Across the Curriculum’s approach provides students with ample practice in those areas that the WPA has identified as important outcomes: rhetorical knowledge; critical thinking, reading and writing; writing as a process; and knowledge of conventions. The writing assignment sequence of summary, critique, synthesis and analysis re-enforces the understanding of writing as a series of tasks. Part II offers step-by-step exercises that help students make the transition from the instruction of Part I to the anthology chapters in Part III. These questions give students the confidence to proceed to the more complex readings and writing assignments in the full-length anthology chapters of Part III. There are two sets of questions in each chapter of Part III.
