Dictionary of Literary Biography An extensive series that provides biographical information for authors in numerous genre-specific and time-specific categories. It is largely focused on British literature, although French and American writers are also included. To retrieve titles in the series, browse on series for dictionary of literary biography in the U of T catalogue. The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English New ed. Ian Ousby. Cambridge; New York: Cambridge University Press. All entries provide background biographical information, a survey of critical analysis of the writer, and a bibliography of works cited and consulted, which provide clues for further reading. PR 116 .M63 2002 Reference. Encyclopedia of British Writers, 19th and 20th Centuries Eds. Indian English literature (IEL) is the body of work by writers in India who write in the English language and whose native or co-native language could be one of the numerous languages of India. Its early history began with the works of Michael Madhusudan Dutt followed by R. K. Narayan, Mulk Raj Anand and Raja Rao who contributed to Indian fiction in the 1930s. It is also associated with the works of members of the Indian diaspora who are of Indian descent.
